

CEPIS
Council of European Professional
Informatics Societies

Dear Member,

Welcome to the July issue of CEPIS member update. Read about the CIS event on strategies for Informatics teachers, (re)watch ITPE's Women in Tech webinar, and find out about our members' latest activities. Discover all this and more below!

CIS SIN holds mini conference on informatics teacher education

The Computing in Schools (CIS) SIN and the Slovak Society for Computer Science (SSCS) held the event 'Strategies for Informatics Teachers Education' on 21 June in Bratislava. It was organised by CEPIS and SSCS in cooperation with the Faculty of Mathematics, Physics, and Informatics of the Comenius University in Bratislava.

Read the full article.

IT Professionalism Europe

Competent and careful. Recognised and respected.

ITPE holds Women in tech-webinar

On 23 June, ITPE and ALL DIGITAL co-organised the webinar ‘Women in tech – what role should companies play?’. The webinar presented ideas and initiatives that inspire and promote more gender equality in the ICT field, and featured a presentation of the DiversIT Charter.

Read the full article.

IAT holds conference on Education in the Light of IT

The Informatics Association of Turkey (IAT) organised the “Education in the Light of Information Technologies Conference and Exhibition, BTIE'22” on June 20-21, 2022 in Ankara, Turkey.

Read the full article.

Tech, IT and a passion for beauty

Data Analyst at Thérapie Clinic, Adelola Adebo, sat down with ITPE for the latest interview in a series where young IT professionals share their career experiences.

Read the full article.

NJSzT showcases IT artifacts at Museum Night in Hungary

One of the activities of the John von Neumann Society (NJSzT) is collecting and presenting the best traditions and history of technology. That was what motivated NJSzT to join the “Night of Museums”, a countrywide series of educational events.

Read the full article.

More news

New European Innovation Agenda prioritises tech talent acquisition

Czech Republic assumes EU presidency

How inflation disrupts the IT sector

Upcoming events

24 November CEPIS Council meeting. Brussels, Belgium/online

CEPIS

Rue des Colonies 11

1000 Brussels, Belgium

Amsterdam, Nederland - Belgisch centrum van Werkzaamheden. Ondernemingsnr: 0880.146.128